

Who should speak for us in Europe?

What are you voting for?

Thousands like you feel let down by politics. So who should speak for you in Europe?

Voting for the other parties will just bring more of the same. We want to see your family and your community put first – before the profit of big business and bankers.

By voting Green you know what you are voting against: against inequality, against nuclear weapons, against excessive traffic and against the pollution that is causing changes in our climate and increased flooding.

By voting Green you can also be clear what you are voting for!

Green  Party

for strong local economies and communities, without a need for foodbanks

for a more equal society, where richer people pay their fair share of taxes, everyone gets a living wage and benefits are paid to those who need them for investment in apprenticeships and lasting green jobs: in renewable energy, local agriculture, public transport and caring professions for healthy food, clean air, safe streets and a better quality of life for a radically reformed financial sector that supports small businesses and co-ops for renationalising the railways – so that investment goes into improving services and reducing fares, rather than into profits for putting family first: better parental leave, flexible working and more free childcare for protecting children's right to a childhood: for safety in a digital age, for banning adverts aimed at children, for getting children off screens and outdoors again

“Greens want to create a future where protecting our shared world is at the heart of all government policies. We want an environment that works for the quality of life of people, families and communities.

“Thousands of people like you are switching to the Green Party. We’re asking you to join them and vote for a positive future for your family and community.”
